

2024 DC Ranch Association Board Call for Director

Overview

The Board is seeking applicants to fill one open position on the DC Ranch Association Board of Directors. This is a great opportunity to get involved and give back to the community.

The Ranch Association Board is elected by voting members as prescribed by the Association's Bylaws. There are seven directors on the Board. Director John Shaw, whose term expires April 2025, has resigned from his position. The Board will now appoint a director to fill this vacancy through the April 2025 election.

Board Director Qualifications

- Must be at least 18 years of age; shall be owners or residents of property subject to the Declaration of DC Ranch Association.
- Must be in good standing with the Association.
- Must have a genuine desire to serve the community at large.
- Ideal candidates represent all segments, geographic and otherwise, of DC Ranch Association.
- Candidates should have expertise serving on boards and/or in large group settings, as group dynamics and positive engagement skills are critical.
- Directors must be willing and able to learn and support DC Ranch Association's mission and vision, along with the community's brand promise and community values.
- Must demonstrate the ability to interact constructively with others in a group setting.

Additional desired strengths include consensus building; mission-focused; involved in the community; respectful; acts with integrity; embraces the community's values; thoughtful; engaged; has courage to make the right decisions; ability to engage in civil dialogue.

Board Director Commitments

- Attend board meetings and executive sessions. The Board generally meets in open session the first Monday of every month (except July when) at 6 p.m. There may also be executive sessions scheduled in advance of an open session.
- Attend a board planning session.
- Attend a mandatory board orientation.
- Serve on a committee when asked.

Selection Process

Interest forms, available on DCRanch.com, are due by Sept. 30, 2024 at 9 a.m.

The Board will review all interest forms and may contact interested appointees for more information and/or to interview. The Board's intent is to make the appointment to fill this open director's position at its Oct. 7, 2024 board meeting.
